

AVENUE HOUSE NEWS

September 2019

Welcome to our latest newsletter. After an enjoyable Summer, we are now approaching Autumn, with the darker nights & a distinctive chill in the air.

Events over the Summer

In addition to our regular activities, we have been lucky to have some wonderful visiting entertainers –including Ballet Bristol who came along to perform for us, 12Volt Joe, Lawrence Kell playing the violin, Damien Cheung playing the guitar & singing for us, to name but a few. We are continuing our Intergenerational Link-Up with The Tin Drum Nursery.

During August we have also tried some new activities including Bread Making which smelt & tasted lovely, Tie Dye, we've also been busy painting our Bird Boxes.

Summer Days In the Garden

Our Bird Boxes nearing completion

Alpaca Visit.

We had some friendly Alpacas visit us, lucky enough it was a lovely sunny afternoon. Many of the residents commented on how lovely they were & how used the Alpacas are to people.

Ballet Bristol

We had a lovely performance including dances from The Sleeping Beauty, Cleopatra, The Nutcracker, Giselle, La Carnaval, The First Waltz & The Seasons.

After the show the dancers came along to chat with the residents.

Upcoming Events

14th September - BARD Musical Entertainers
18th September - Music with Maureen – Shostakovich
20th September - Flashback Theatre – The Big Band
28th September - Helen Adshead singing Nota Bene

A very warm welcome to our most recent new residents:

Max Greenwood – Room 1
Dick Perry – Room 5
Esmee Haire – Room 13
Valerie Cort – Room 21

Hopefully all have happily settled into life at Avenue House and already feel like one of the family.

Good Luck & Best Wishes Natalie

This month, we all met in the lounge as a surprise, with a few gifts for Natalie who went off on Maternity leave.

We will let you know when we hear of any news of the New Arrival.

A few Photos from our Activities

Intergenerational Link-Up with The Tin Drum

We are all enjoying our weekly Link-Up with the Nursery. Over the past month we have done Storytelling, Fruity Kebabs, Puzzles, Cake Making, Pencil Toppers, Singing, Parachutes Games & Bubbles. Our little friends have now gone off to School, and we have been joined by a new group of youngsters.

We made 'Thank you' cards (as below)
for our little friends starting school thanking them for joining us & wishing them Good Luck starting School.

Thank you to our New Friends
For joining us at Avenue House

Tuesday mornings have a whole new meaning "the children are coming to visit us today"
